

Fine Arts Work Center (FAWC) Summer Workshop Scholarships Summer 2024

Live, learn, and create for a week at FAWC in Provincetown!

WEBSITE: <https://fawc.org>

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Application Deadline: Thursday, March 1, 2024, 11:59pm ET

Application opens: Mid-January

Awards are announced: April

Workshop takes place: 1 week during the summer

DESCRIPTION

The Fine Arts Work Center (FAWC) is partnering with RISD Careers to award scholarships to 2 RISD students or alumni to participate in a one-week, summer, visual arts or creative writing workshop in 2024. RISD students/alumni will pay no tuition and will be provided free housing, in addition to a $500 travel/food stipend. Awardees must arrange travel to and from Provincetown. Awardees are responsible for the cost of their own materials. Breakfast is provided every day.

The FAWC Summer Workshop Program offers over 60 week-long workshops in visual arts and creative writing for more than 500 students every summer. Nationally recognized artists and writers come to FAWC in Provincetown to teach workshops and to participate in readings and artist talks that are open to the public and enjoyed by hundreds in the community.

FAWC in Provincetown, Massachusetts is a non-profit organization dedicated to encouraging the growth and development of emerging visual artists and writers and to enhancing the year-round vitality of the historic art community of Provincetown. FAWC was founded in 1968 by a group of artists who envisioned a place in Provincetown, the country's most enduring artists' community, where artists and writers could live and work together in the early phase of their careers. FAWC is internationally known for an acclaimed Fellowship program, which grants winter residencies to emerging writers and artists. The Fellowships have provided sustained and crucial time and space to over 1,000 emerging artists and writers over the course of FAWC's 50+ year history. FAWC also offers open-enrollment educational programs that provide opportunities to artists of all levels to take strides in their artistic practice and become part of a rich creative community, in addition to helping preserve Provincetown as a cultural destination.

ELIGIBILITY

- Applicants -- undergraduates and graduates – must be graduating June 2024 and therefore alumni during the Summer Workshop. It is also available to all alumni.
- Applicants can be of any major in the visual arts or creative writing.
- Applicants of any citizenship are eligible.
- Applicants should have a working knowledge of English.

APPLICATION PROCESS & COMPONENTS

- Apply online directly to FAWC by their deadline. The link to the application is found on the RISD Careers Managed Grant page.
- In your application to FAWC, note your RISD education.
- If you are selected by FAWC, FAWC will notify the RISD Career Center.

CONTACT

For Questions about FAWC and the Application:

David Simpson, FAWC Program Director

dsimpson@fawc.org

General Questions and Advice:

Lisa Cramer, lcramer@risd.edu, 401.454.6669

RISD Grants & Residencies Manager

Updated 1/2024